

EJ Conference, Inc.
Presents

The State of Environmental Justice in America 2008
Conference

Promoting Partnerships for Sustainable Solutions

HOWARD UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW
2900 VAN NESS STREET, NW
WASHINGTON, DC
MAY 21-24, 2008

April 17, 2008

Financial Assistance Application Available On-Line

A limited amount of financial assistance funds for travel, on a reimbursable basis, may be available for conference participants. Financial assistance will be awarded based on available funds and equitable distribution, and awarded according to the guidelines stated in the application which may be found on the conference website at: www.ejconference2008.org. Completed applications must be received by April 25, 2008.

Conference Agenda Update

The Program Committee is finalizing the various panels and presenters. Please check the conference website periodically over the next week or so for an updated agenda. Examples of topics to be discussed are: addressing climate change impacts in Indian Country & Alaska; community participation in environmental decision making; and development of alternative fuel.

EJ Conference, Inc. is a non-profit corporation dedicated to education and opportunity that was formed to provide a forum for dialogue and seeking solutions to environmental justice issues for all stakeholders.

To learn more about the annual EJ conference and to participate in this year's conference, please visit www.ejconference2008.org.

NOTICE: Because of the chemical sensitivity of many people, we are requesting that attendees wear unscented toiletry items.