

The State of Environmental Justice In America Conference 2008

“Promoting Partnerships for Sustainable Solutions”
HOWARD UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, WASHINGTON, DC
MAY 21-24, 2008

www.ejconference2008.org
www.environmentaljusticeblogspot.com

EJ CONFERENCE IN WASHINGTON, D.C., TO EXCHANGE NEW IDEAS AND NEW APPROACHES TO ENVIRONMENTAL JUSTICE

Dean Kurt L. Schmoke, Howard University School of Law invited to give Welcome Address

The Howard University School of Law will host The State of Environmental Justice in America 2008 Conference, “Promoting Partnerships for Sustainable Solutions” on May 21-24. Kurt L. Schmoke, Dean, Howard University School of Law has been invited to give the Welcome Address and open Conference on Wednesday, May 21, 2008, at 5:00 p.m. This event will bring together individuals interested in environmental justice from diverse groups for dialogue and learning from each other. Conference participants will have the opportunity to network and enhance their awareness of informative and productive resources that can support their individual goals and objectives.

WHO: Community and faith-based organizations, Tribal communities, public interest organizations, business and industry units and associations, academics, scientists, government officials, and other participants will engage in three days of free exchange of new ideas and new approaches to environmental justice and thought-provoking dialogue.

Key Speakers include: Tim Fields, Former EPA Assistant Administrator for Solid Waste and Emergency Response; Granta Nakayama, EPA Assistant Administrator; John Cruden, Assistant Attorney General; Michael Owen, DOE Director of Legacy Management; Bill Kovacs, United States Chamber of Commerce; Gladys Gary Vaughn, United States Department of Agriculture; David Dillard, Director of Ecosystem Management Coordination, Forest Service; Harold Mitchell, ReGenesis; Sue Briggum, Waste Management; and other leaders in the field of environmentalism and environmental justice.

WHAT: State of Environmental Justice in America 2008 Conference

WHEN: May 21-24, 2008

WHERE: Howard University School of Law, 2900 Van Ness Street, NW, Washington, D.C

For additional information, please contact conference coordinator John Rosenthal at ejinamerica@hotmail.com or 703-624-2257.

Notice: Because of the chemical sensitivity of many people, we are requesting that attendees wear unscented toiletry items.